BYE-LAWS, RULES AND REGULATIONS

(A) MEMBERSHIP -

1. A person / organization satisfying the eligibility criteria laid down under para (4) of the Constitution can become a member of IAPT in an appropriate membership category.
2. A person / organization desirous of becoming a member will apply for the membership, in the prescribed proforma, along with the prescribed fee (through a bank draft / electronic transfer) to the Registered Office. The application and the fee could also be collected by an authorized member, who will issue an official receipt.

The authorized member will forward the application and the fee along with the second copy of the receipt issued by him to the treasurer within a week of the date of receipt.
3. The Treasurer at Registered Office will scrutinize the application and confirm the receipt of the fee. An application complete in all respects only will be accepted. Incomplete application will be returned to the applicant for doing the needful.
  - (i) The applicant will be informed of the acceptance of the application, membership number and the date of the commencement of the membership. In case of life membership, the certificate of membership will also be issued. A copy of the constitution may also be supplied.
  - (ii) An application for membership may be rejected when it is for a wrong category of membership or when the amount of fee is incorrect. No application should be held in abeyance.
4. The Treasurer will communicate annually through the Bulletin, a list of newly registered members in a particular year.
5. A member, in general, is entitled to receive a copy of the Bulletin of IAPT (or its e-version) free of charge. A life member, in addition will get (i) a certificate of membership (ii) a copy of the Constitution and Bye-laws, (iii) books and periodicals under the ELCB scheme at concessional rates.
6. A member is entitled to participate and has the right to vote at a General Body meeting on all issues concerning the working of IAPT.
7. The tenure of membership of a member will be as mentioned in para (4) of the constitution for the different categories of membership and will be counted from the date of commencement of the membership.
8. The membership of a member gets terminated either (i) at the end of the tenure, or (ii) on resignation by the member, or (iii) on the demise of the member.
9. If it is found that the activities of a member are detrimental to the interests of IAPT or if a member is convicted for activities detrimental to the national interest, the EC, on the basis of a resolution brought before it, may terminate the membership with immediate effect.
10. Termination of membership
  - (a) In the event of termination of the membership, no refund of the membership fee or a part thereof or any other monetary contribution by the member can be claimed by the member or successor, if any.
  - (b) Such a member is debarred from applying for membership again.

(B) ELECTIONS -

11. The elections to the various bodies of IAPT, such as the EC, RC, SRC should be held at proper time so that the new members of the body can assume charge on the expiry of the term of outgoing members of that body and that there is little gap between expiry of the term and the assumption of charge.

12. (a) A member whose name is on the register of membership on the 1st October of the year of election is entitled to vote at an election. However only a life member is entitled to contest an election.
(b) Election will be conducted on “One member One vote” basis.
13. The EC may prepare a panel of prospective candidates for the various elective posts. This may be done at its regular meeting held earlier or a special meeting called for the purpose. These prospective candidates should be requested to file nomination papers when called for through the notification issued by the Returning Officer. This exercise of preparing a panel is necessary so that candidates known for their experience, sincerity, active participation and leadership get elected to the EC.
14. An election will be announced, supervised, conducted and the results thereof declared by the Returning Officer (RO) nominated for the purpose.
15. The Returning Officer (RO) will be nominated from amongst the members of IAPT by the President in consultation with the General Secretary about six months prior to the date of expiry of the term of the EC. The Returning Officer should not be a member of EC and should not contest for any post at the election. The President will also nominate a three-member Grievance Redressal Committee.
16. The Returning Officer will prepare a programme for the elections in consultation with the General Secretary taking into consideration the calendar of events of IAPT e.g. the convention etc. The programme will be published in the August / September issue of the Bulletin for the information of the members. Along with the announcement, RO will issue a statement of posts for which elections are called and invite nominations for the same. A proforma of the nomination form may also be attached therewith.
17. (a) The nomination form should contain name, address and membership number of the candidate. In addition the form should contain names, addresses, membership numbers of the proposer and seconder along with the consent of the candidate and any other information, declaration etc. as required.
(b) A member can propose / second the candidature of one person for each of the posts.
18. The Returning Officer will scrutinize all the nomination papers received in due time and publish the list of validly nominated candidates in the October issue of the Bulletin and invite withdrawals, if any. The names proposed by EC may be indicated as such (e.g. by an asterisk).
19. The Returning Officer will publish a ballot paper in the November issue of the Bulletin. The ballot paper will contain the names of all validly nominated candidates against each post for which the election is to be held. A detailed procedure for voting and sending the ballot papers to the Returning Officer will also be notified. The EC may be empowered to adopt / suggest any new reliable method for casting votes. A list of candidates who are elected unopposed will also be published.
20. The Returning Officer will, after a count of the ballot papers received by the due date, prepare the list of elected candidates and hand it over to the President. The list should be published in January issue of the Bulletin.
21. The General Secretary will communicate the result of the election to the elected members and convene a joint meeting of the incumbent and newly elected office bearers for the purpose of transfer of charge.
22. All disputes in the matter of elections will be referred to the Returning Officer. He will discuss these with the Grievance Redressal Committee and its decision on such matters will be final and binding on all concerned.
23. A candidate for election may publish a brief biodata in the Bulletin. This publication in the Bulletin will be charged at the usual advertisement rates.

(C) GENERAL BODY -

24. All members on the register of members on the date of the meeting constitute the General Body (GB) of the IAPT and are entitled to attend the meeting of the GB and vote at the meeting.
25. The GB will meet at least once in a calendar year in an ordinary meeting. Such a meeting will be held, preferably at the venue of the annual convention of IAPT, during the period of the convention.
26. A notice calling a meeting of the GB will be issued by the General Secretary at least 45 days in advance of the date of the meeting. The notice will be published in the appropriate issue of the Bulletin. A non-receipt or a delayed receipt of the issue of the Bulletin due to postal vagaries will not vitiate the issuance of the notice.
27. The General Secretary will decide the agenda of the meeting in consultation with the President and circulate it with the notice through the Bulletin.
28. The agenda will include such matters as the presentation and approval of the report of the GS on the working of IAPT, statements of account and the budget, resolutions passed by the EC and to be placed for approval of the GB and any matter concerning policy or working of the Association.
29. A member desirous of raising certain matters of importance should communicate the resolution to the GS, so as to reach the GS at least 15 days in advance.
30. The quorum required for a GB meeting will be one tenth of the membership or one hundred (100) whichever is smaller.
31. A GB meeting will be adjourned if the number of members present at the stipulated time is less than that required for fulfillment of quorum. This will be judged on the basis of signatures on the attendance register.
32. A meeting adjourned for want of quorum will be reconvened after half an hour at the same venue. A quorum will not be required for such a reconvened meeting.
33. The President will preside over a GB Meeting and conduct the meeting in accordance with the agenda. In unforeseen circumstances if the President or the Senior VP is not in a position to conduct the meeting, any of the VPs present may be requested by the GS to preside over the meeting.
34. All the decisions at the meeting will be recorded in the form of resolutions. The resolutions will be passed by a consensus. In situations where a vote is demanded the voting will be by raising of hands only. No vote of dissent will be recorded.
35. The chairperson has the privilege to allow a member to raise matters for which a prior notice has not been given. This is to ensure that any matter of concern to a member is given due attention.
36. A special meeting of the GB may be called on the basis of a decision to that effect by the EC or a requisition by at least 50 members, to consider specific matters such as amendments to the constitution, dissolution of the organization or a specific crisis situation.
37. A special meeting of the GB will require a notice of 45 days (as for a regular meeting).
38. The quorum requirement for the special GB meeting will be the same as that for the ordinary meeting. The meeting will however be closed without transacting the business in the absence of the quorum. No adjournment is permitted in such a case.

(D) THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL -

39. The EC will meet at least two times during a year. The gap between two successive meetings will not in any case be more than eight calendar months.
40. A notice convening a meeting of the EC will be issued by the General Secretary to all the EC members individually. A notice of at least 20 days will be required for calling an ordinary meeting. An extraordinary / emergency meeting may be called with a notice of 10 days. A prior intimation about dates and venue may be given so as to enable the members to obtain train reservations for the journey.
41. The General Secretary will prepare the agenda for the meeting in consultation with the President and circulate it to the members of EC along with the notice convening the meeting.

42. The President will preside over the meeting. In absence of the President and the Senior VP, the GS will request one of the VPs present to chair the meeting.
43. The required quorum for a meeting will be one half of the total number of members of EC (excluding invitees). The meeting will be adjourned if the requirement of quorum is not fulfilled at the scheduled time and venue of the meeting. The adjourned meeting will be reconvened after half an hour and no quorum will be essential for the reconvened meeting. This provision for reconvening will not apply for emergency meetings.
44. All the decisions of the meeting will be recorded in the form of resolutions. The resolutions will be passed by a consensus among the members present. If a consensus cannot be arrived at, the matter may be deferred for consideration at a later meeting.
45. All matters to be placed before the GB will be discussed in the EC meeting before these are presented to the GB.
46. Any vacancy in EC during its tenure will be filled by EC in accordance with the procedure similar to the one outlined in para 7(c) and 7(d) of the Constitution.
47. The EC may appoint sub-committees comprising of IAPT members for specific tasks. These committees will submit their reports to the General Secretary who will place these before the EC for its consideration and acceptance or otherwise.
48. If an EC member remains absent for two consecutive meetings of EC without obtaining proper leave of absence, the EC may consider termination of membership of EC of such a member. Proper leave of absence may be granted by the President if he is satisfied with the explanation for the absence given by the member.
49. A VP who is given an assignment will report to the EC on various aspects of that assignment. (i) VP will prepare the work-schedule and the budget commitments required. (ii) VP may constitute a small committee from amongst members of EC to help.
50. The RC member of Central EC will report to the EC on the working of the RC and SRCs in the respective region.

(E) ADMINISTRATION -

Offices of IAPT

51. The Registered Office at Kanpur is the statutory office of IAPT and the address of the Registered Office is the address of the Association, for all purposes legal and official and in all correspondence to and from other agencies and organizations.

General -

59. The President may constitute a core committee consisting of the GS, the Treasurer and a few other members (e.g. Chief Coordinator- Examinations) to advise him on matters connected with the working of IAPT. The committee may meet as often as necessary.
60. The President may constitute an academic committee consisting of distinguished persons from academic and other areas to advise him on general aspects of education development and other areas relevant to the objectives of IAPT and with a view to establish liaison for the benefit of IAPT. The committee has no role in the day-to-day working of IAPT.
61. The Association may enter into collaboration or contracts with other organizations, agencies, firms etc. with a view to further the objective of the Association and to enable the Association to carry out its ongoing programmes (e.g. fabrication of equipment, production of educational hardware and software etc.)
- (a) Memorandum of Understanding (MoU), agreements or contracts will be placed before the EC for approval / ratification.
  - (b) Such documents will be signed by the President and the General Secretary, on behalf of the Association.
  - (c) When the collaborations / contracts are at the regional level, the President and the Secretary of the concerned RC be made a party to the agreements.
62. For smooth working of the Association, the EC will formulate an event calendar for the various activities planned for the year. This will be a joint effort of the VP assigned to the specific department and other functionaries such as the GS, Treasurer etc. The financial commitments of an activity or a part thereof will be clearly spelt out and adjusted against the budget provision for the respective activities / department.
63. The different functionaries of the Association will be entitled to maintain a personal imprest account (not an IAPT account) for the purpose of their day-to-day work-related expenses. The expenses will be reimbursed periodically on the submission of the expense vouchers to the Treasurer. The imprest limit will be decided by the EC.

(F) FINANCE & ACCOUNTS -

64. For prudent management of monetary resources, certain financial discipline is to be observed by all the offices and functionaries of the Association. The flow chain in this direction will consist of the budget, the finance committee and the limited financial powers of the GS.

- (a) The VP (Finance) (see 8 b(ii) of Constitution), GS, Treasurer, Chief Coordinator(Examinations) and two other members will form the Finance Committee, under the chairmanship of the President.
- (b) The Finance Committee will set the norms for financial commitments for various types of activities.
- (c) Budget - All offices and functionaries of IAPT will submit their annual budget in full details in a prescribed format, to the Registered Office latest by the end of February every year.
In addition to the annual receivable funds RC will receive funds for special projects and programmes (separately for each) proposed to be held during the year. The request for the funds should be in proper format.
- (d) The Treasurer will prepare a consolidated budget with full details and get it approved by the finance committee. The budget will then be placed before EC for final approval.
The Finance Committee may modify the submitted proposals according to availability of funds and priorities.
  - (i) For any major expense (above the limit set for the GS) not included in the budget a prior sanction of Finance Committee is essential. In that case the sanction letter in original must be attached with the request for disbursement.
  - (ii) The GS may sanction a non-budget expenditure up to a limit set by EC.

65. Receipt and Disbursement of funds -

- (i) All donations and endowment funds will be received at the Registered Office. Grants may be received, for specific projects, at other offices as well. The Registered Office, however, will be kept informed of such receipts.
